

Foundation to Hold Annual Meeting; New Joint Annual Report to be Distributed

We will have a number of visitors on campus on Thursday, November 5, for the NMCC Foundation Annual Meeting. In addition to Foundation board members, there are a number donors, alumni, scholarship recipients and other "friends" of the College who will be joining us that evening. Attendees will receive the 2008-2009 annual report, which for the first time includes an annual report on the College's activities as well as those of the Foundation. It is an exciting new piece which will also be distributed on campus in the near future.

Scavenger Hunt

The Student Senate is sponsoring a Scavenger Hunt for students. Teams of three or four students are encouraged to sign up in the IT office (just off the Christie lobby) this week through Monday, November 9 to take part. The list of items to be sought will be distributed to teams on November 9, and teams have that week to find as many items as they can. Teams will bring their scavenged items to the Edmunds Conference Center on Friday, November 13, for the judging.

The last of the books in the Let's Talk About It reading series will be discussed at noon on Monday, November 9. Copies of the book, We Took to the Woods by Louise Dickinson Rich, are available in the library for those who would like to read the book prior to the November 9 discussion.

Halloween Happenings

In fitting with the Halloween season, NMCC instructor Jen Graham (standing, left) presented a very interesting discussion on ghost stories in Aroostook County in the library on October 29. In addition to a number of students and employees, the well-attended event also included folks from the local community intrigued by the topic. Graham recounted several stories from across The County, as well as Maine's most famous ghost story, that of Colonel Buck's Cursed Tomb that originates in Bucksport.

Winners of the Great Pumpkin Contest were, in no particular order: Jonathan Guimond, best carved; Austin Albert, most creative; Hillary Albert, most colorful; Kiarra Lahey, happiest; Brandon Mancos, scariest; and Cameron Lahey, spookiest. Each won a bag of candy. Special thanks to John Price and Kim Ferguson for serving as judges.

Winners of the Halloween Guessing Contest were Andrea Walsh, jar one, and Amber Nickerson, jar two. Both won a $25 gas card, which they can pick up from Cindy Albert in the counseling office. Both contests were sponsored by the Student Senate.

Condolences...

On behalf of the NMCC campus community, our condolences go out to Nathan Gardiner (the lab assistant in residential construction and an NMCC alum) and his family on the loss of Nathan's mother.

Newsletter Items...

Do you have items that you would like printed in the Weekly Bulletin? If so, please submit your information to the development office, by calling 768-2809, e-mailing info@nmcc.edu or stopping by the office, just off of the lobby of the Christie Building. The weekly deadline is Thursday by 10 a.m.

Help Support the NMCC Library

As a special fund raiser for the NMCC library, B. Dalton at the Aroostook Center Mall is offering a special opportunity for the weekend of Nov. 13-15.

Anyone who shops at the store during that Friday through Sunday can use a coupon that allows up to 15% of their purchase to be donated to the library.

Coupons were distributed to employees and are available in the NMCC library and at the bookstore. All you need to do is present the coupon to the cashier before he or she begins ringing up your order, or if you forget the coupon, just mention the NMCC book fair. Some exclusions do apply, such as gift cards, text books, memberships and magazine subscriptions.

Anyone can shop to support the library, so please share the news with your family members and friends. This is a great opportunity to pick up that book you've been wanting or to do a little holiday shopping, while supporting the NMCC library at the same time!
