

March 12, 2010
NR10022

NMCC Hosts Largest Job Fair in the County

Jennifer Curran from Tempo Employment Services speaks to Michael Scott during the Job Fair held on March 11 at Northern Maine Community College. Tempo was one of 60 businesses and organizations either present or collecting resumes at the event. Approximately 525 NMCC students and community members attended this year's Job Fair in hopes of either finding a job or just learning more about the what skills they need to prepare for certain professions.

Lynn Voisine from the Maine Department of Transportation speaks to Victor McEachern of Houlton about job opportunities at MDOT during the NMCC Job Fair held on Thursday, March 11, on the College's Presque Isle campus.