Students to Host Talent Show

NMCC medical assisting students will be hosting a talent show on April 15 in the Edmunds Conference Center. The event will start at 6:30 p.m. and tickets can be purchased at the door for $5 per person or $12 per family.

The students will be using the proceeds to establish a scholarship fund for future students in the medical assisting program.

The talent show will feature individuals from The County who have a wide range of talents. There will be solo and group performances that will perform one song or act each. After each performance, a panel of judges will evaluate each act. The judges will be: Pam Palm, adjunct instructor for medical coding; John Levasseur, arts and sciences instructor; and Brian McDougal, chair of the trade and technical occupations department.

The NMCC campus and local community are encouraged to attend the April 15 talent show to support local talent and NMCC's medical assisting program.

LET'S CELEBRATE THE 1970S!

As we continue our 50th anniversary activities, we'll be celebrating the 1970s on Tuesday, April 12. Students and employees are encouraged to dress from 70s...think bell bottom jeans, tie dye t-shirts, shirts/necklaces with peace signs, etc.

A special highlight for the day is Keystone Cops, a fund raising activity that was popular in the 1970s. This activity will be happening from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Folks can stop by the information window in the lobby anytime Monday or on Tuesday morning to order an arrest warrant for members of the campus community. These warrants cost $25 each.

A "jail" has been set up in the Christie lobby, and those with an arrest warrant issued against them will be put in jail until they can raise the bail amount determined by the Community College Court judge.

All proceeds from the warrants and the bail will be going to student organizations on campus. This event is being sponsored by the Student Senate.

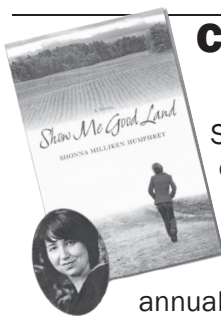

Be sure to have your teacher, classmate, friend, coworker, etc. "arrested"... it promises to be fun and raise money for our student groups!

Stop by the Christie lobby during the day to enjoy some tunes from that decade, and to see who's in jail.

Also to help celebrate the decade, dining services is offering a special 1970's-themed meal for lunch, including Sloppy Joes, Hamburger Helper, Macaroni & Cheese, Deviled Eggs, Pop Tarts, Rice Krispie Squares, Snickerdoodles, Tang, and Tab.

Be sure to join the fun on Tuesday!

Creative Writers Reading Series to Begin; Book Signing Slated

Students and employees, as well as local community members, are invited to join in the annual Creative Writers Reading Series taking place this month in the library. The noon-time sessions will feature a guest writer as well as students from the college.

Students who are in the creative writing class at the college will participate by briefly reading their own original work, followed by a guest speaker. The guest speaker for the day will read a passage from their published work and then answer questions about the work, their experiences as a writer, or other areas of interest the audience members may have.

"The featured guest will be reading different forms of literature. During each reading there will be a specific genre of writing: poetry, fiction, and non-fiction. Maine is fortunate to have a wide range of talented writers," said Jan Grieco, NMCC instructor and coordinator of the reading series. "I am impressed with the number of professional writers who are willing to share their writing styles and experiences with the public and students attending NMCC."

The reading series gets underway on Wednesday, April 13, with writer Shonna Milliken Humphrey. The Houlton Native now resides in Gorham, Maine. She received her Master's Degree in Fine Arts in Writing and Literature from Bennington College in Vermont.

Her work has been featured in literary journals, local magazines, and

Volleyball Teams Sought

The NMCC Student Senate is looking for students, employees and community members to take part in their annual "Support Maine Veterans" Volleyball Tournament. This year's tournament will take place on Saturday, April 16, beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the NMCC gym.

Teams with one or more players who have competed on a volleyball team will play in a competitive bracket, while the other teams will play in a recreational bracket. All those competing in the tournament will receive a free t-shirt.

Each team of six to eight players is expected to raise at least $100. Teams or groups donating $100, but not playing, can be listed as "honorary" teams supporting the effort. All proceeds from this fundraising will be donated to the Maine Veterans' Home in Caribou.

Please rally your classmates, co-workers, friends and family to form teams to compete in this tournament. Team registration forms and pledge sheets are available in the IT office.

For more information on the tournament or making a donation to support the cause, contact a member of the Student Senate or advisor Dennis Albert at 768-2757.
