Torch Relay Raises Awareness

A thanks goes out to everyone who took the time to attend the rally in the courtyard on Monday, November 5, to kick-off the torch relay between NMCC and UMPI in order to raise awareness of the Questions 2 & 3 on the ballot the following day. A special thanks to those who ran in the torch relay to represent NMCC. In relay fashion, these students and employees covered the distance from the Christie courtyard on campus to the corner of State and Main Streets in Presque Isle. Below, NMCC Student Senate President Patrick Beaulieu (center right) hands the torch over to UMPI Student Senate President Josh Bellamy, while members of the torch relay from both campuses look on.

The hearty volunteers that ran during the NMCC portion of the torch relay were, above from left: Tom Richard, director of housing and residential life; Tasha Sock, medical office administration student; President Tim Crowley; Nagmeldin Arbab, liberal studies student; Jessica Miller, student activities coordinator; David Raymond, humanities instructor; Joane Maingrette, liberal studies student; Wendy Bradstreet, accountant in the business office; Candice Rivera, medical office administration student; Josh Parent, liberal studies student; and Patrick Beaulieu, plumbing and heating student. Absent from photo: Dennis Albert, welding and metal fabrication instructor as well as advisor for the NMCC Student Senate.

NMCC President Tim Crowley and Student Activities Coordinator Jessica Miller kick off the first leg of the relay.
