Toward Excellence

Nursing Students and Instructors Wear Red

NMCC nursing students and faculty recently wore red on February 1 — a day when Americans nationwide wore red to raise awareness about women's heart disease. This observance promotes the Red Dress symbol and provides an opportunity for everyone to unite in this life-saving awareness movement by showing off a favorite red dress, shirt, or tie, or Red Dress Pin. Participating in the "wear red" campaign were (front, from left): Trudi Smith, Tonya DuVal, Louise Hamlin, William Milliard, Nicholas Taxiarchis, Heidi Smith, Tammy MacDougall, and Mallory McKeil. Standing, from left, are: nursing instructor Paula Flora, Rebecca Palmer-Bugbee, Erik Vaughn, Tracy Rossignol, Jolene Paul, Andrea Pratt, and nursing instructors Eileen McDougal and Kim Esquibel. Missing from photo is Abby McLaughlin.
