

Grand Opening of Business Technology Center to Be Held

Students and employees are invited to an open house and grand opening of the new Business Technology Center in Christie 208 on Friday, November 7, at 2:00 p.m. College and Foundation officials will join with representatives from MMG Insurance for a ceremony and reception to open the new center designed to provide students with a work environment that models one of the County's most successful businesses. The center was made possible through a $50,000 gift last year from MMG to the Campaign for the County's College.

“Leave It To Beaver” Star Jerry Mathers to Visit NMCC

Members of the campus community and area residents will have the opportunity to meet American TV icon and “Leave It To Beaver” star Jerry Mathers, when the popular former child actor visits the region on Monday, November 10, on the “Help Is Here Express” bus tour.

The bus, which is touring the country with Mathers, will make its central Aroostook stop at NMCC at 12:00 noon. Mathers will speak about the effects of chronic disease to interested members of the public. The NMCC visit will run through 2:00 p.m.

In addition to the Presque Isle stop, the “Help Is Here Express” will visit Fort Kent earlier in the day with a 9:00 a.m. stop at the Fort Kent Town Office, and a 3:30 p.m. visit in southern Aroostook at Houlton Regional Hospital.

Hockey News

Congratulations to NMCC's ice hockey team on their season opening win against State Farm on Monday, October 27. The final score was 7 to 5. The next game is Monday, November 3, at 8:00 p.m. at the Forum. Admission is free, so come and support your team!

For the schedule and updated game results, see the athletics section on the website (www.nmc.edu/pages/athletics.php).

Students who are interested in joining the hockey team can contact coach Doug Carlisle via e-mail at douglascarlisle@yahoo.com.

Senior Make Over Day

Mark your calendars... this year's Senior Make Over Day will be held on Thursday, March 5, from 12:00-3:00 p.m. The planning committee is working hard to make this another outstanding event. Students will be able to get hair cuts, makeup advice, feedback on resumes, practice on interviews, and an outfit or two to help start building a professional wardrobe.

Faculty and staff donations of business attire and accessories will be most appreciated. As you are cleaning out closets and preparing for another season, please keep this in mind. Donations can be dropped off in the counseling office.

ECE Basket Winner...

Congratulations to Charles Zappone for winning the basket of goodies being raffled off by the early childhood education students. The ECE Student Organization raised $148 to support the Ronald McDonald House and the toddler struck by a vehicle in Ashland. Thanks to all who supported this cause! Look for their quilt & quilt rack raffle to begin soon!

Put Another Notch in Your Education, Do an Internship...

Yes, Internships are back! If you are a second year student and have completed 30 credit hours, have attained a 2.5 GPA and are eager to use your education to learn more about your chosen program, this is the opportunity for you.

Internships offer the opportunity to work side by side with professionals in a chosen field and gain experience and knowledge in your career field. Why not start establishing your contacts now and begin networking for future employment?

For more information please contact Pam Crawford, internship instructor, at pcrawford@nmcc.edu or 768-2739.
