Corduroy The Bear Visits NMCC

Corduroy the Bear, a popular children's book character, visited the Northern Maine Community College E. Perrin Edmunds Library recently. He was joined by Sue McPherson, children's librarian at the Mark & Emily Turner Memorial Library, who read one of Corduroy's books to preschoolers from the Circle of Friends Daycare. The daycare is run by Jolene Blake and Nicole Henderson. After the story, the children enjoyed lollipops and hugs with Corduroy. The Mark & Emily Turner Memorial Library brought the book character to the area and partnered with NMCC for this event. Before Corduroy left The County for another adventure he also visited with children at the Turner library, as well as other area libraries and the ACAP Daycare Center.
